

Ankarin Material Testing Equipment

SAMPLE GRINDING AND CRUSHING MIXER

This is a mixer designed to break up and de-agglomerate medium-hard soils and similar materials for laboratory analysis. It breaks down materials that have clumped together—such as those removed from an oven—reducing them to the appropriate sample size for testing and thereby facilitating the analysis process for the user. It operates on 220V 50Hz power.

